

New Plastics Surgeon for Rockhampton

Doctor Elamurugan Arumugan is a plastics surgeon who has emigrated to Queensland from the United Kingdom.

Dr Arumugan who likes to be known as Dr Aru is a plastics surgeon who is a Fellow of Royal Australasian College of Surgeons in Plastics and Reconstructive surgery. He is also a member of the Royal College of Surgeons in Endinburgh in the United Kingdom.

Dr Aru is working at the Mater Hospital Rockhampton Thursday and Fridays each week. He can be contacted by calling the outpatients department at the Mater hospital.

Dr Aru's special interest areas are skin cancer surgery, hand surgery, general plastics surgery and breast reduction and augmentation surgery.

Dr Aru has worked and undertaken training in major hospital in Australia, New Zealand, United kingdom and the United States of America.

Dr Aru is Married with 2 children, his family is settling into an Australian way of life with his children already enrolled into school.

Dr Aru is looking forward to working in Rockhampton and providing a plastics surgery service to the people of Rockhampton.